

BEHAVIOUR EXPECTATIONS

Indoors

WE INSPIRE, WE ENCOURAGE, WE EMPOWER, WE MATTER.

Adults decide which zone you are in

Green Zone

- Being Kind
- Being Respectful
- Showing Resilience
- Following the class charter
- Showing good listening skills and having a positive attitude towards my learning
- Being well-mannered, gentle and helpful
- Being a positive role for others

Rewards:

- Positive praise
- Head Teacher party invite
- Celebration assembly superstar
- Postcards home
- Marbles in a jar
- Raffle tickets

Yellow Zone

- Not keeping to the expectations in the Green Zone

- Verbal warning

Orange Zone

- Continuing Yellow Zone behaviour
- Continuing to interrupt learning
- Continuing to be unkind in your use of words and actions
- Refusing to do as asked when given a direct instruction

Sanction and next steps:

- Thinking time
- Miss playtime or part of lunchtime play and complete work
- Parents informed by class teachers at the end of the day

Red Zone

- Continuing Orange Zone behaviour
- Repeatedly refusing to do as asked
- Swearing and/or using inappropriate language
- Physically hurting another child on purpose
- Repeatedly being unkind in your use of words
- Deliberately damaging school property

Sanction and next steps:

- Thinking time out of class
- If the child has had thinking time in another class during that week, a meeting with the Year Team Leader can be arranged and they could consider either of the following:
 - Missing a class outing or event
 - Missing playtime
 - Parents/carers will be called (record on tracking system)

Grey Zone

- Fighting with children
- Deliberately hurting an adult
- Refusing to show respect towards adults and the school's expectations

Sanction and next steps:

- See a member of the senior leadership team who will decide an appropriate sanction, which may include the loss of playtimes or an extended time in another class
- Suspension or permanent exclusion from the school

BEHAVIOUR EXPECTATIONS

Outdoors

WE INSPIRE, WE ENCOURAGE, WE EMPOWER, WE MATTER.

Adults decide which zone you are in

Green Zone

- Being Kind
- Being Respectful
- Showing Resilience
- Following the class charter
- Showing good listening skills and having a positive attitude towards my learning
- Being well-mannered, gentle and helpful
- Being a positive role for others

Rewards:

- Positive praise
- Head Teacher party invite
- Celebration assembly superstar
- Postcards home
- Marbles in a jar
- Raffle tickets

Yellow Zone

- Not keeping to the expectations in the Green Zone

- Verbal warning

Orange Zone

- Continuing Yellow Zone behaviour
- Continuing to interrupt learning
- Continuing to be unkind in your use of words and actions
- Refusing to do as asked when given a direct instruction

Sanction and next steps:

- Thinking time
- Miss playtime or part of lunchtime play and complete work
- Parents informed by class teachers at the end of the day

Red Zone

- Continuing Orange Zone behaviour
- Repeatedly refusing to do as asked
- Swearing and/or using inappropriate language
- Physically hurting another child on purpose
- Repeatedly being unkind in your use of words
- Deliberately damaging school property

Sanction and next steps:

- Thinking time out of class
- If the child has had thinking time in another class during that week, a meeting with the Year Team Leader can be arranged and they could consider either of the following:
 - Missing a class outing or event
 - Missing playtime
 - Parents/carers will be called (record on tracking system)

Grey Zone

- Fighting with children
- Deliberately hurting an adult
- Refusing to show respect towards adults and the school's expectations

Sanction and next steps:

- See a member of the senior leadership team who will decide an appropriate sanction, which may include the loss of playtimes or an extended time in another class
- Suspension or permanent exclusion from the school