Outstanding Owls

Year 2 had an exciting visit from some owls, including tawny and barn owls, as part of their writing unit based on The Owl Who Was Afraid of the Dark. The children were captivated by watching the owls and learned some amazing new facts, including that owls cannot move their eyes! Their enthusiasm has inspired some truly incredible writing. A big thank you to FOMPPS for funding this wonderful experience!

Writing Raps in Year 6 by Layci

Whispers of the tiger

In jungles deep where shadows lie, a golden flame with amber eye,
moves silent through the tangled green,
A sovereign spirit fierce and unseen.

Its stripes are stories etched in night,
a living riddle, wild delight,
the forest bends, the rivers hush,
before its stride the world must blush.

Poacher dreamer keeper of lore,
echo of ages, myth and roar,
a fleeting ghost yet bold and true,
the tiger reigns eternal new.
