Remembrance Day

The poppy appeal is in full swing and if you haven't had your chance to buy one then please do pop into the office. On Monday 11th November the school will hold special assemblies to learn about the history of Remembrance Day and its importance. We will also be holding a two minute silence at 11am to show our respect and gratitude for those who have served. We also remember Sergeant Frederick Riggs who was awarded the Victoria Cross in 1918. There is a memorial plaque in our school hall to remember his bravery in WW1.

Daniel Forward, Headteacher

Parents Evening

We are excited to invite you all to parents evening next week which will be held on Tuesday and Thursday from 3.30pm until 6.00pm. Please collect your child at the end of the day and enter through the office for your appointments. Please do your best to arrive early for your appointment so we can keep to time. If you haven't yet booked an appointment then please click on the link below: <https://malmesburypark.schoolcloud.co.uk/>

Odd socks day: Tuesday 12th November

WHAT IS ODD SOCKS DAY?

Odd Socks Day is part of Anti-Bullying Week! To celebrate that we are all unique, we ask that children wear odd socks to school on Tuesday 12th

November. Last year over 13,000 schools took part in Odd Socks Day. Andy Day (CBeebies/CBBC) and his band Andy and the Odd Socks are partnering with the Anti-Bullying Alliance to help bring Odd Socks Day to life again this year. Have a listen to the brilliant song they have recorded especially for Anti-Bullying Week, 'Choose Respect'.

WHY IS ODD SOCKS DAY IMPORTANT?

The day sends an important message to pupils that they should be allowed to be themselves free from bullying and helps us celebrate Anti-Bullying Week in a fun and positive way.

FOMPPS

Please support our incredible parent volunteers who help raise money for our children.
