All Aboard the Reading Bus

Each week our pupils enjoy 30 minutes of dedicated reading time on the school's colourful Reading Bus. This inviting space is stocked with a wide range of books—from exciting adventures to thought-provoking non-fiction—so there's something for every reader.

Classes take turns to climb aboard, settle into the cosy seating and lose themselves in stories. Teachers have noticed that these weekly sessions are helping children develop a love of reading, build confidence, and discover new authors and genres.

The Reading Bus is fast becoming a favourite part of the school week—proof that a little extra time with a good book can spark a lifelong passion for reading.

Our Voices in the Trees

Back in the spring, some of our pupils helped record sounds and words for an exciting new artwork called Canopy, created by artist Lorna Rees.

Now those recordings have become part of a magical sound installation hidden among the trees at Moors Valley Country Park. As you walk beneath the branches, you can hear layers of music, voices and natural sounds weaving together—our own contributions included!

The installation launches this weekend as part of the Inside Out Dorset festival and will be free and fully accessible for everyone to enjoy.

Families can discover more by visiting the Canopy event page or checking the Inside Out Dorset listing in the Moors Valley events section
